

Pins Crowned Champion Hong Kong Sire

Waikato Stud's superb G1 sire PINS was crowned Hong Kong's Champion Sire for the 2010/2011 season last night.

Shadowing the 2007/08 & 2008/09 accomplishments of associate sire O'Reilly, Pins picked up the honour with a Hong Kong achievement of 9 winners and progeny earnings of over HK$31 million.

Selected by Bruce Perry in New Zealand, Ambitious Dragon has been a revelation in Hong Kong this term. Feature wins for the star galloper include the G1 QEII Cup, the HK-1 Hong Kong Derby and the HK-1 Classic Cup.

Beginning the season with a rating of 57 for trainer Tony Millard, Ambitious Dragon left rivals to it in 7 races – a record equalling count, that would see him finish the season with a rating of 125.

This feat duly saw him claim the title of Most Improved Horse and with the aforementioned wins in mind, also ensured owner Johnson Lam collected the honours for Champion Middle Distance Horse and for Hong Kong's Most Popular Horse.

Interestingly, Ambitious Dragon was not the only son of Pins who shone on the night.

Smart Giant – a Pins half-brother to our multiple G1 winner Daffodil, played his part too by bringing up win number 73 for John Moore, effectively sealing for him the title of Hong Kong's Champion Trainer of 2010/11.
