Waikato Stud's 2012 Stud Fees

We're announcing the 2012 service fees for our highly successful stallion line-up and launching an exciting new initiative for Australasian breeders today.

"The key for us, as always, is to offer breeders the opportunity to breed the best racehorses that they can and to be able to do so at great value," said Mark.

"This year, beyond market driven stud fees, we are introducing a Breeding Vet Fee initiative."

"This means that people breeding to Waikato Stud's stallions in 2012 will have their Breeding Vet Fees included within the service fee."

Paco Boy First Crop Foals Impressing

Paco Boy's first crop of foals are meeting with strong approval in the Northern Hemisphere.

"Paco Boy is stamping them extremely well. He is giving them excellent muscle definition like himself and good white attractive markings on their heads," Highclere Stud's John Warren told Waikato Stud recently.

"We have had tremendous feedback and have recently booked about 20 additional mares in on the back of the good chat that is going around. He has 117 mares booked to date and is covering them brilliantly with excellent fertility figures."

Paco Boy - who was a legendary triple Gr.1 winner, will stand at Waikato Stud for NZ$10,000 plus GST, LFG in 2012.

WS on Show At Flemington

WS enjoyed a notable result at Flemington last Saturday when Gr.1 performer Placement downed fellow Matamata farm graduate Epingle.

Third in last season's VRC Oaks, the daughter of Savabeel is trained on the track by Danny O'Brien.

Out of the O'Reilly mare Lucida, Placement was a $A65,000 buy from WS's 2009 Sydney Easter Sale draft while Epingle was purchased for $A180,000 out of the same consignment.

Mark's Mail

Another big week with the announcement of the boys stud fees and with the launch of our exciting new Breeding Vet Fees initiative.

What our sire line-up has achieved over the past season is nothing short of remarkable, so with the value they represent and our new Breeding Bet Fee package, there really is plenty for breeders to be excited about.

I'm making Consummate my tip this week. I think she's a good chance in the NZB Warstep Stakes on Saturday. She's drawn the ace marble and has already shown a real liking for the trip.

Tip of the Week: CONSUMMATE, Listed Warstep Stakes (2000m), CJC, Race 6, 2:46pm (NZ time)
